Are you an experienced counsellor? Are you committed to supporting student mental health and want to empower the next generation of artists and designers? If so, the New Brunswick College of Craft and Design (NBCCD) invites you to join our dynamic team as Counsellor reporting to the Student Services Manager.

About NBCCD: The New Brunswick College of Craft and Design (NBCCD) is a leading institution in craft and design education, offering a range of innovative programs that empower students to forge sustainable, creative careers. Our commitment to curiosity, creativity, and community is at the heart of everything we do.

What You'll Do: As Counsellor and member of the student services team, you will play a multifaceted role in shaping the college's identity, fostering its growth, and nurturing its student community. Your responsibilities will include:

- Develop and implement personal counseling and mental health and wellness programming for students.
- Provide support for the integration and adaptation of international and indigenous students, along with students facing physical and intellectual disabilities.
- Interpret neuropsychological, psycho-educational, and medical reports, offering counseling services tailored to students with disabilities.
- Assessment of Special Admissions applicants, as well as assist students with disabilities in applying for the Canada Study Grant.

- Managing the procurement and utilization of assistive technology, as well as coordinating tutoring services.
- Close collaboration with faculty and the Campus Senior Management Team, fostering a coordinated effort to enhance student retention and graduation rates.

Who You Are:

- Master's degree in counselling.
- A minimum of 1 year of related experience working with young adult disability cases and crisis intervention.
- Strong organizational and communication skills.
- Passion for education, arts, and fostering student growth.

Benefits:

- Competitive benefits package.
- Opportunity for professional growth and development within a vibrant creative community.
- Chance to make a lasting impact on the future of arts and design education.
- Collaborative and inclusive work environment.

Pay Scale: Education Program Officer 2, $2,182 to $2,633 bi-weekly.

Application Process: Interested candidates should submit their resume, a cover letter outlining their relevant experience, and contact information for three professional references to camila.vasquez@gnb.ca with the subject line "Counsellor Application."

NBCCD is an equal opportunity employer committed to diversity and inclusion in the workplace. We thank all applicants for their interest; however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

Join us in shaping the future of arts education at NBCCD. Your expertise and passion can make a difference. Apply today!
