CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS: UNLOCKED - art by young Canadians inspired by the pandemic

A documentary producer based in Montreal is present UNLOCKED, an exciting online art exhibit that sheds a spotlight on the personal and creative response of young Canadian artists inspired by the pandemic.

Young people ages 9-25 are invited to submit their original artwork through the project's website www.unlockedproject.ca. All disciplines are encouraged from visual arts, music, poetry, photography and video.

UNLOCKED values diversity and the representation of minorities from coast to coast to coast. Its goal is to create a vibrant community of young artists across Canada – inspire creativity and through the beauty of their art give a bit of hope in these difficult times.

Selected artworks will be published on the UNLOCKED website and will be promoted on UNLOCKED's social media platforms as well as through a wide range of art organizations across the country. It is a unique opportunity for young artists to have their artwork seen and their voices heard.

UNLOCKED has been made possible thanks to the collaboration of several important Canadian youth organizations actively engaged in art programs that bring social change and justice to their communities.

Unlocked is also partnering with ArtBridges, a charitable organization and hub of community-engaged arts initiatives across Canada.

If you have any questions, reach out to info@unlockedproject.ca.
