

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT POLICY

NEW BRUNSWICK COLLEGE OF CRAFT AND DESIGN

1.0 POLICY STATEMENT

New Brunswick College of Craft and Design (NBCCD) ("the College") is a community of students, faculty, and staff, committed to providing a safe environment which is respectful of the rights, responsibilities, well-being, and dignity of all its members.

The Student Code of Conduct ("Code") reflects the expectation that students will conduct themselves in a manner consistent with generally accepted standards of behaviour. This includes compliance with college regulations and policies, as well as federal, provincial, and municipal laws.

It is the responsibility of all students to be familiar with this policy, and to adhere to the standards of student conduct as outlined in the Colleges' policies and procedures. The College has a duty to respond to allegations that violate the Student Code of Conduct.

2.0 PURPOSE

The purposes of this policy are to:

- define the standard of general conduct expected of students;
- describe the procedure the College will follow when an allegation of student misconduct is made; and
- describe the appeal process and providing an avenue for recourse for informal and formal appeals.

3.0 SCOPE

3.1. On campus

This policy applies to student conduct, including the conduct of student guests, from the time of admission to a course/program until the student has completed their course(s)/graduated. This Code applies to all conduct which takes place on NBCCD property/premises, as well as to the use of NBCCD telephones, computers, and networks, including email addresses and hosted websites.

3.2. Off campus

This Code applies to the conduct of students off campus:

- i. When they are on a course or participating in an organized class activity;
- ii. When they are participating in a College Sanctioned Activity;
- iii. When they are acting as delegates, designated representatives of NBCCD, or as
- iv. members of an NBCCD group or organization at Sanctioned Activities;
- v. In circumstances when the potential consequences of the conduct may adversely affect the Complainant's course of learning, teaching, or work at the College, or where the conduct complained of may damage the reputation of the College. This applies to Sanctioned Activities and events that are not Sanctioned Activities.

3.3. Other

- i. This Code applies to conduct via telephone, computer, or other electronic devices (e.g., email, social media, etc.);
- ii. Students are expected to be individually responsible for their actions whether acting individually or in a group.

3.4. Relationship to Other Proceedings

- i. In cases in which criminal or civil proceedings have been taken, the College may apply interim measures if there is a reasonable basis that any offence under this Code has occurred.

5.1. Complaints

- A complaint may be made against any Student, group of students, staff, or instructors who is/are believed to have committed an offence under this Code. The complaint shall be made within one year after the alleged offence occurred. The complaint shall be made in writing using the Student Complaint Form and forwarded to the Student Services Manager;
- Under certain circumstances, such as situations involving a potential risk of harm to any person, proceedings under this Code may be initiated by the Student Services Manager without a written complaint;
- In cases where a Complainant is unsure of whether or not there has been a breach of this Code, but has a concern about a Student, a referral may be made to the Student Services Manager who may then decide to seek advice or refer the Student to other available services.

5.2. Informal Resolution

The goal of informal resolution is to achieve a resolution that is acceptable to the Complainant and Respondent. Pursuing Informal Resolution does not limit the Complainant or Respondent from invoking other options. In addition, an Informal Resolution is not a pre-requisite to pursuing other options.

- Whenever appropriate, informal resolution through direct communication shall be used to resolve issues of individual behaviour(s).
- If informal resolution is unsuccessful or inappropriate in the circumstances, the Student Services Manager will discuss options with the Complainant.

If direct communication is unsuccessful in addressing the Complainants concerns:

- The Student Services Manager will contact the Respondent and the Complainant and attempt to resolve the complaint to the satisfaction of the parties concerned;
- The Student Services Manager will involve the College Resolution Committee or other individuals as agreed to by the members of the College community involved;

- The Student Services Manager shall advise the Complainant and the Respondent of their right to be accompanied by a member of the Student Services Team as a Student Advocate.
- If both the Complainant and the Respondent consent to mediation, the Student
- Services Manager is responsible for identifying a mediator, who has appropriate education, training, experience, and suitability.
- Within ten (10) days of receiving a request for mediation, the Student Services Manager shall provide to the mediator a copy of the Complaint and the written response, if any, of the Respondent.
- Within five (5) days, the mediator shall contact the parties to schedule in-person interviews.
- The mediator shall conduct the mediation in a fair and objective manner utilizing reasonable methods in an attempt to facilitate resolution by both parties.
- The Mediator shall not impose a resolution.
- The Mediation Process should be completed within twenty (20) business days, or to the best of our ability, of a Mediator being identified.

5.4. Resolution Through Mediation

- If, through the mediation process, a resolution is achieved by the Complainant and Respondent, the mediator shall record the agreed-upon resolution in writing, which shall be signed by the Complainant, the Respondent, and the Mediator.

- Copies of the written resolution shall be presented to each of the parties and the College Resolution Committee.
- The Student Services Manager will follow-up within twenty (20) days, or at an agreed upon date, to review the resolution.
- If the Complainant is satisfied with the outcome the complaint is resolved.

5.5. Lack of Resolution Through Mediation

- The mediator will notify the Student Services Manager, in writing, within two (2) days that mediation was unsuccessful.

- Notice that the Respondent may respond in writing to the College Resolution Committee or designate within ten (10) days, and;
- Where applicable, written notice of any interim measures imposed.

6.3. Respondent's Right to Respond

- The Respondent may submit a response in writing to the College Resolution Committee within ten (10) days of the Respondent's receipt of the written notice of complaint. - If the Respondent confirms the allegation(s) as outlined in the Complaint, the College Resolution Committee, or designate may proceed immediately to consider and impose sanctions.

6.5. Decision of the Student Disciplinary Committee

- If the College Resolution Committee decides that the Student has not violated the Code, the Student Services Manager shall provide their written decision to the Complainant and the Respondent, and the file will be closed. Any interim measures that may have been imposed will then be repealed.
- If the College Resolution Committee decides that the Student has violated the Code, the Student Services Manager shall provide their written decision to the Complainant and the Respondent. If the Committee decides that a sanction is appropriate, then:
 - i. They may impose a sanction per Section 7.0 of this Code. The Respondent may appeal such a sanction pursuant to Section 8.0 of this Code.
 - ii. The College Resolution Committee may recommend the sanction(s) listed (f) and (g) to the Academic Dean or designate (suspension or expulsion).

6.6. Withdrawing of Complaint

A Complaint is considered withdrawn when:

- i. The Complainant withdraws the Complaint at any stage of the process, by informing the Student Services Manager.
- ii. The Complainant chooses not to participate in the complaint process.

6.7. Interim Measures

The College Resolution Committee may impose interim measures, where the alleged behaviour of a student may be considered to constitute a danger to persons or property, hinder a member of the College from enjoying rights, or from pursuing activities within the College. These measures will be put in place if required, pending a finding of a violation of this Code, and may be repealed, upheld, or expanded after a finding has been made. Such measures should balance the safety of the Complainant with the requirement of fairness to both the Complainant and the Respondent.

- Interim Measures are not determinative of whether there has been a breach of this Code.
- Interim measures may include limitation of access to all or part of the College. The College Resolution Committee may impose a temporary limitation of access to all, or part of the campus, where in their discretion such a temporary limitation to access is required for the wellbeing of students or the College community.

6.8. Provision of Reasons

Within three (3) days following the decision of any interim measure, the Respondent shall be informed in writing of the reasons for the interim measure(s). The Respondent shall be given the opportunity to respond to the interim measure(s), in writing, within ten (10) days, to the College Resolution Committee. Following the response of the Respondent, the College Resolution Committee, will reassess the interim measure(s) imposed and either revoke or affirm the measure(s).
